

Abstract

This research “The Extra Explanation for Al-Imam Al-Bagawi on the six books, from the beginning of the Iman book, up to the end of the fasting part, collection and research on the books of the Sunnah.

This research includes an introduction, two parts and an end. The introduction includes the importance of the subject and the reasons behind selecting it, the aims of the research, the previous efforts and the way of the research. The first part (the study includes three chapters:

- * The first chapter: The biography of the Imam, Al-Bagawi, which includes many points:
 - 1- The period in which he lived, from the political, the scientific and the social point.
 - 2- The biography of this Imam also includes his name, his origin, the name in which he was called, his birth, his life and his death.
 - 3- The thoughts of the Imam and his religious school.
 - 4- His scientific importance which includes his life as an old man, his students, his travels, his books and the praise of other scientists on him.
- * The second chapter: An introduction to the science, which deals with the science that searches more information about the Prophet’s sayings. This includes: Introduction this science, the importance of the science, the ways of classification and the books written on this science.
- * The third chapter: This includes the way of classifying books the Imam adapted in his book “Sharh Al-Sunnah”. It also includes:
 - 1- General introduction to the book of “Sharh Al-Sunnah”.
 - 2- The way this Imam adapted in classifying Prophet’s sayings on chapters.
 - 3- His way of narrating about his teachers.
 - 4- His way of writing the Prophet’s sayings.
 - 5- Searching the Prophet’s sayings according to Al-Imam Al-Bagawi.
 - 6- Criticizing the narrators of the Hadith according to Al-Imam Al-Bagawi.
 - 7- Criticizing the group of people who narrated the Hadith.
 - 8- Commenting on the Hadith.
 - 9- The references where Al-Imam Al-Bagawi took the Hadith in his book Sharh Al-Sunnah.
- * The second part of the study includes studying the extra number of Hadith which is due to this study. This number is 121 including the repeated ones in addition to the 100 Hadith without the repeated ones. This is by searching the position of the Hadith in books and the biography of some narrators of the Hadith and the judgement on these sayings.

The search was ended by a conclusion where the researcher wrote the most important results and recommendations. This research also included a number of appendices to make using the information in the study easy.

The end.